AURA VIDEO-ANALYZER

This handy lab gadget detects the wearer's emotional state, whether they're lying or not, and their archetype be that movie star, fertility goddess, or demon from the Ninth Circle of Hell.

Shows subject's emotional state and essence of archetype.

DIGITAL CAMERA

Great for filming the antics of ghosts for research purposes but usually used to capture a Ghostbuster's more embarrassing moments for Youtube.

Records video, which can be reviewed, shared, posted online, or—with a computer—edited. Some ghosts even react differently when on camera.

GEIGER COUNTER

A highly useful device for tracking radiation fluctuations from radioactive ghosts . . . or leaks in small, unlicensed nuclear accelerators.

Detects and measures the strength of radiation.

BULLHORN

For when you need to make yourself heard over the hubbub of a cocktail party or for telling a ghost to surrender before you move in on it.

Allows user to make more noise than anyone else.

BEACH KIT

This great package includes a huge inflatable beachball, a volleyball net, volleyball, sunglasses, sturdy beach umbrella, stereo, loads of sun-tan lotion, double-sized beach towels, Frisbee, and a cooler you can fill with beverages to celebrate a successful job.

Triples fun at the beach.

SCUBA GEAR

Air tank, mask, snorkel, and fins. We'll let you guess what it can be used for. Hint: SCUBA is an acronym.

Allows breathing under water and faster movement using a Muscles roll or the Swim Talent.

CLIMBING GEAR

Climbing gear includes pitons, climbing hammer, rope, clamps, and harness

Using proper climbing gear lets you roll 3 extra dice when using Muscles or Climb to scale a Matterhorn, or a skyscraper, or an elevator shaft.
